

Statement of Compliance of Information Security

I will access to Huawei's information system and Huawei's Classified information for work purpose. I hereby confirm that I have learnt and clearly understood the requirements of Huawei's information security, and promise to comply with the basic rules as below:

- I will study company information security rules regular, and observe the entire request
- Complying with the Information Security Red Lines "19 MUST NOT DO"

1. Never disclose Huawei's classified information to competitors to damage the company's interests
2. Never sell Huawei's classified information to any third party (company or personal)
3. Without permission, never upload Huawei's classified information to external network, or sell classified information online
4. Without permission, never use Huawei's classified information for consulting or teaching purposes outside the company and making profits.
5. Without permission, never use non-Huawei devices to download Huawei's classified information (for example, download classified information from outlook, W3, Support Website to private computer or clients' computer)
6. Without permission, never copy Huawei's classified information from work laptop to non-Huawei devices (for example, copy by network share or by cable to personal pen drive, hardisk, private computer, phone or customer's switch room)
7. Without permission, never send Huawei's classified information to private external mailbox or work unrelated third parties, Not even use non-Huawei email to receive or deal with Huawei's work.
8. Without permission, never install non-standard software, not even use non-standard software to copy, backup or transfer Huawei's classified information. (non-standard software like: FeiQ, lpmng, skype, teamviewer, dropbox etc.)
9. Without permission, never use non-Huawei devices to store or backup Huawei's classified information.
10. Without permission, never print Huawei's secret or top secret classified information.
11. Without permission, never use any network disk except Onebox to upload or backup Huawei's classified information.
12. Without permission, never photograph, audio or video capture of Huawei's classified information.
13. Without permission, never removed privately the hard disk from work laptop.
14. Without permission, never take privately the hard disk of work laptop to outside to repair.
15. Without permission, never lend Huawei's Information System Account to non-Huawei staff
16. Without permission, never use harddisk, pendrive or CD with operating system to start work laptop, Never bypass security software of Huawei (Such as :ACC\SPES\CPM, etc) to operate the work laptop.
17. Without permission, never install more than one operating system or install virtual operating system.
18. Never Develop or deliberately run hacking and virus programs to attack the Huawei's networks or information systems.
19. Without permission, never crack, uninstall, destroy or stop the Huawei's security software (such as ACC, SPES, CPM, etc.)

Low format work laptop when I leaving, Return to local asset administrator if this work laptop is Huawei's asset.

Huawei's Classified Information including INTERNAL information, CONFIDENTIAL information, SECRET information, TOP SECRET information

I have carefully read and fully understood all contents of the letter of commitment, and promise to strictly comply with the requirements. should i violate any of above-mentioned commitments, i am willing to undertake full responsibility correspondingly according to agreement between myself and company or prosecutions based on current applicable legislation

Dept: Geo 2018 Geo Rgr Signature: Wuoli ID: 484184736 Date: 15/02/2024